Sage Summit 2012 is eight months away, but the anticipation is already building. Here are three reasons why attending the Sage customer conference should top your list of priorities for this year:

1. Hear what's working for others in your field.

Regardless of your job role, you'll hear from peers who are eager to share perspectives on the topics that matter most to you. Whether it's software best practices, industry trends, success stories, or anything else on your mind—Sage Summit is the place to connect, share, and learn. Tell us what you want covered.

2. Get more from your Sage solutions.

Only Sage Summit brings forth hundreds of Sage product experts and solution architects who are eager to share their insider tips. The in-depth sessions and hands-on labs you'll attend will help you avoid wasting time and money on a trial-and-error approach and take advantage of proven techniques that help you work better, faster, and smarter.
